

During these most stressful times, and while at this place of business making payments, these wonderful young professionals gave me hugs, listened to my tearful, emotional outpourings with such compassion and caring, they felt to me like "family" or best friends and the General Manager, Sean Gipson, personally cut my interest rate in half on my current loan and increased my loan to assist me